

THREE WHITE MEN WERE KILLED.

THE TWO MEN MISSING
were N. C. Wood and William Wood, nephew.

Accidentally Killed His Brother.
READING, Pa., December 25.—While Oliver Hubert, colored, aged fifteen, was shooting at a mark with his brother Samuel, aged nine, here to-day, the weapon was accidentally discharged and the ball lodged in Samuel's heart, killing him instantly. Oliver was not arrested, the shooting being accidental.

RALEIGH, N. C., December 25.—[Special.]—Keyser, in Moore county, last evening, Louis Stagner, a white man, 60 years old, shot and killed a colored man, the marshal of that town. Stagner had been disorderly and was drinking, and when the marshal attempted to arrest him he drew a revolver and shot him in the head, the bullet penetrating the brain. Stagner made his escape. The marshal was highly esteemed and the angry citizens made a search for Stagner, who is thought to be in hiding in Richmond county, where he was born.

A Firecracker Caused It.

Officer Cochran arrested Ed Linsay, a populating fellow around town, last evening. Ed, the aid of a friend, resisted, and the officer compelled to use his club. As a result, his was safely landed at the stationhouse in a demoralized and bloody condition. The case was precipitated by Linsay firing off a firecracker.

Swift's Specific S. S. S.

IS A POSITIVE CURE FOR MERCURIAL RHEUMATISM. This Medicine effects its wonderful cure by driving out the Mercury from the system.

Poisoned Blood causes Boils to break out on his Arm and Neck.

Last winter ugly boils broke out all over my arms and neck, caused by poisoned blood. Three bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) eradicated the disease entirely from my system. It also restored my appetite, and built up my system, which had been run down to a low ebb, caused by the unhealthy state of my blood.

SALESMAN—Yes, this is the stove you inquired for. As you say, it does not look exactly like the one your mother recommended you to buy, and which she thinks so much of, but it is a Charter Oak Range. We have the Cook Stoves of the same make but the Ranges are used more generally now, as they are more convenient. How long has your mother had her stove?
YOUNG MARRIED LADY—Oh! ever so long. She bought it when I was a baby, and has been using it ever since, and she told me I must get the same kind.
SALESMAN—Well, this is the same kind. That is, it is a Charter Oak, but you must remember that twenty years is a long time, and improvements have been made since your mother got hers. This Range has the wonderful Wire Grates Open Door, which you have probably heard of, as it is known and sold everywhere in connection with our Stoves and Ranges.
YOUNG MARRIED LADY—Oh! I remember now. She spoke about that, but I can't understand why that should make it so much better than our old stove, as that was as good as it could be.
SALESMAN—There is no doubt about its being much better; it is a wonderful improvement. It bakes everything so much nicer, and the meats are not dried up like they are in the old fashioned tight ovens. Why, a steak can be broiled in that oven as perfectly as over a charcoal fire, and the natural juices of the meat, which make it so appetizing, will all be retained. It is just the same with roast meats. Of course it is needless for me to speak of its other good qualities, as your mother's advice has made that unnecessary.
YOUNG MARRIED LADY—Well, of course, I will take it. Please have it put up as soon as you can, as we have no stove yet. We are just commencing housekeeping, you know.

THE WALK AROUND

WHICH WAS STARTED IN ATLANTA LAST NIGHT.

The Scenes at the Opening—People Trying Their Leg Power—The Programme Announced.

"Are you ready—Go." It was at eight o'clock that Mr. E. Morris clapped his hands together with a report like that of a pistol and the six aspirants to fame and money started on their long, weary fifty-two hour tramp. Everything tended to inspire the pedestrians to put their best foot foremost. At the word "go" the band rendered a lively refrain and the audience shouted encouragement, and when the "ped" reached the end of the hall, where a number of ladies were collected in the gallery, handkerchiefs were waved and the bright smiles of the ladies caused every man to break into a run. As the walkers passed the score on the first lap, Johnson, of Augusta, was marked one, and Vanderveer, of New Orleans, was marked two, and so on.

The first mile was made by Prater in six minutes, after which the walkers got down to work. Most of them walked with a gait which was not calculated to cover the ground, was not as exhausting as the fast run in which the first mile was made.

Mr. Vanderveer for the first few runs made no effort to exert himself. He is a stout, 180 pound man, and it was not until late in the afternoon that he began to look upon him as a laggard. After his efforts, however, their eyes were opened, and they realized that he was a formidable opponent.

Each of the contestants has a peculiar style of his own. Prater, who is somewhat of a favorite, carries a point in each hand and trips along with a springing trot, which, if he can keep it up, will probably win him a victory.

Johnson, of Augusta, is brilliant in red silk knee trousers and green silk shirt. He is a fine specimen of a walk and a trot, which seems to answer every purpose.

A good-sized crowd filled the hall, and nearly all the sports in Atlanta were using their best judgment to pick out the winner in order to back him. W. C. Lucas, of Savannah, is a favorite, and his long, swinging, rolling gait, in addition to his knowledge of the business, if business it is, will undoubtedly win him a victory.

The score at 10 o'clock was as follows:

Lucas..... 19 miles
Prater..... 18
Johnson..... 17
Vanderveer..... 16
Barker..... 15
Marker..... 14

The score at 11 o'clock:

Johnson..... 31 miles
Prater..... 29
Lucas..... 27
Barker..... 26
Gress..... 25
Vanderveer..... 24
Marker..... 23

At 1:30 the contestants rested for supper and a half hour's rest. At 1:45 they resumed their weary tramp.

CHRISTMAS IN ATLANTA.

A Quiet Day Because of Mr. Grady's Funeral.

Yesterday was the saddest Christmas in the history of Atlanta. The streets were quiet, and even the homes, where the children were playing, were strangely subdued in the universal sorrow.

The sombre drapery upon the store fronts and in other public places heightened this effect.

The day seemed more like a Sabbath than like Christmas.

IN THE CHURCHES.

In all the churches yesterday special services were made to Mr. Grady's death.

At St. Luke's, the Christmas carols and similar festive in the programme were omitted as a mark of respect.

Bishop Peck with officiated and preached an able and most appropriate sermon.

Rev. Dr. Fuester preached a powerful sermon yesterday at St. Philip's. He paid a high tribute to Mr. Grady's memory.

At the Church of the Immaculate Conception mass was held at 8:30, 9, and 10:30 a. m., with the usual Christmas services.

Special mass and similar services were held at the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul.

The Christmas services of the German Lutheran church last evening were held at the usual hour.

They were followed by the impromptu and informal speech making characteristic of the occasion in this church. This was followed by a distribution of presents from a Christmas tree.

The Fourth Presbyterian Church.

It was a happy crowd that assembled Tuesday night at the Fourth Presbyterian church.

Two Xmas trees, as pretty as any in the city, were heavily loaded with everything to please the children. The pastor and superintendent, Dr. Cleveland, opened the exercises with singing all to pause a moment in the midst of their pleasures and think of the great love he bore them, and to thank him for the many blessings of the year.

In this connection he was heard at the door. The children furnished other Christmas carols.

Just as the pastor arose and began to apologize for the delay of Santa Claus, sleigh bells were heard at the door.

Fire crackers and rockets joined in the confusion, and before any one knew the cause of the racket, old Santa rushed in, crackers popping, bells jingling, babies crying, and he himself with preserved his presence.

His passage was so swift that the snow was still clinging to his furs. He soon got to work on the trees, and kept the children lively by jingling his presents at bells.

He certainly knew his business, and must have been there before.

Every scholar received a nice present and a large orange. Even the sexton was remembered, and went down the aisle clanking over a genuine briar root pipe. All were pleased and admired the tree a great deal. After the tree had been cleared, the superintendent invited all the visitors to partake and many enjoyed this treat.

Field's Minstrels.

Last night the Field's minstrel aggregation appeared at the open house in its second performance in Atlanta. A very fair audience greeted the company, and an equally fair performance was given.

On account of the funeral services of the day the attendance was not held.

McLean and Prescott.

These two distinguished artists will appear in Atlanta Friday and Saturday, and they will offer to our theatergoers three of the best performances of the season.

Every play as presented by them is perfection, and none can imagine how it could be better rendered. Those who to this excellence, and everywhere the same praise is bestowed upon them. The Knoxville Tribune related this interpretation of "Innocent."

The play was pronounced by competent critics to have been the finest piece of acting ever seen in our city, and her heroes were held spell-bound from beginning to end. An electric thrill and the audience to have passed through every emotion, and the applause was rapturous.

No actor before received such a reception in Knoxville. Miss Prescott takes her great role of Parthenia, and Mr. R. D. McLean as Ingram. Miss Prescott is finely formed, and is very graceful, has a beautiful face, lovely eyes and a voice that is melodious.

Her every action denotes the real life of her brilliant genius, and enchains the hearer at once. She completely captivated her audience.

Mr. McLean is a splendid actor and a fine gentleman. He is a native of New Orleans, La. He has a commanding figure, fine stage presence and a voice of great power.

Miss Prescott is a southern woman and a native of Kentucky. She has the clear-cut face and sweet expression noticeable among southern women. She has only been on the stage ten years, and during that time has become one of the greatest actresses that America has yet brought forth.

Miss Prescott played last night to one of the most enthusiastic audiences which has ever assembled in the theater.

SAM JONES'S DAUGHTER ELOPES.

A Sensational Social Event Stirs Up Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., December 25.—[Special.]—The greatest social sensation that the south has known for many years, was the elopement of Anna C. Jones, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Rev. Sam P. Jones, the noted evangelist, with William M. Graham, stenographer of the Cherokee judicial circuit in Georgia.

The couple have been married in Georgia.

LOVERS FOR TWO OR THREE YEARS, but Rev. Sam Jones and his wife have been opposed to the match on account of the youth of the young lady.

The elopement was well planned and executed. It was not thought of until last night, when Professor L. B. Robeson, principal of the public schools of Cartersville, the home of the eloping couple, and Dr. J. E. Mayes, a druggist in the town where Graham went horseback riding with a Christmas party, and purposely becoming acquainted with the young lady.

SEPARATED FROM THEIR COMPANIONS, rode rapidly to Rogers's Station, where they were joined by Professor Robertson. Meanwhile, Dr. Mayes had come to this city, procured the license and the services of Rev. Dr. Bachman to perform the ceremony. When the bridal party reached here they found that in some way their plans had been discovered.

SECRET HAD LEAKED OUT, and Rev. Dr. Bachman, becoming suspicious, declined to perform the ceremony. They then drove to the house of Rev. Dr. Dumbell, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and giving the young lady's age at 22 years, they succeeded in having a ceremony performed. They then drove to a hotel, where a private wedding supper was prepared.

The affair will return to Cartersville tomorrow. The affair created the most intense interest here, as Rev. Mr. Jones at one time sent his daughter to school in order to break off the intimacy between her and the man whom she has now married against their wishes.

ENGLAND AND EGYPT.

It Does Not Look Like England Will Accept France's Proposition.

PARIS, December 25.—The Temps has an important article on the position of the French government with regard to the conversion of the Egyptian preference loan from a 5 per cent to a 4 per cent stock as proposed early in the year by Sir Edgar Vincent.

The Temps reports that the government has intimated to the British minister that it will no longer insist upon the evacuation of Egypt by England as a condition of its assent to the conversion of this portion of the Egyptian debt, but may consent if England initiates a process of evacuation by withdrawing part of her troops, and if it is agreed that the profit of conversion shall be applied to the purpose of strengthening the Egyptian army, which has been calculated that the taxing to the Egyptian treasury by this reduction would be equal to $300,000 a year, and this money spent upon the Egyptian army would admit of an important reduction in effectiveness of the British army without endangering any interest that the presence of British troops in Egypt has.

As the marquis of Salisbury has hitherto refused to negotiate upon the ground that military occupation and debt were parts of the same question, and as England claims the right of settlement of her forces will be followed by over-running of Egypt from the Sudan, the prospect for the future of the French proposition is not promising.

It is reported that the dispute between England and Portugal regarding their African possessions will be submitted to Duke Ernest of Saxe, Coburg and Gotha for arbitration. The British minister here has several long interviews with Governor Portuguese, foreign minister, on the questions at issue at Portuguese. The comte de Mende has been ordered to remain in Delagoa Bay.

THE EPIDEMIC IN EUROPE.

The King of Portugal and His Soldiers Suffering From Influenza.

LISBON, December 25.—Influenza prevails to such an extent among the soldiers in the garrison here that it will probably prevent the proposed review of the 28th regiment, on the occasion of the proclaiming of Dom Carlos as king of Portugal.

The American legation here intends to give a banquet in honor of Admiral Walker and other officers of the United States squadron of evolution. Leading Portuguese officials and foreign diplomatic representatives have been invited to attend.

The king of Portugal is suffering from an attack of influenza.

Don Pedro and the ex-emperors of Brazil are in Lisbon. The ex-emperors is still ill.

INCREASE OF THE DISEASE IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, December 25.—The public health authorities report a great increase in the number of cases of influenza and an aggregation of disease with an increase in the death rate.

Fatal effects are produced by complications of pneumonia and laryngitis.

From Bremen there is news that the gas works are short of fuel, and in consequence the return of employees down with the epidemic. In Munich the disease is increasing and the hospitals are full.

The epidemic has appeared at Bucharest, Galatz and Brasila.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 25.—The czar has suffered severely from the prevailing epidemic of influenza. To-day he was too ill to attend the regular Christmas church services and was also compelled to omit the customary parade of guards.

The empress presided at a luncheon at the Autichkov palace after the military parade.

FIGHTING IN BRAZIL.

Monarchists Parade the Streets of Rio de Janeiro and a Battle Ensues.

LISBON, December 25.—Dispatches from Rio de Janeiro, received in cipher by the newspaper Novidades, contain important and deeply interesting facts about a political upheaval reported there as having occurred on the 18th instant. It is undoubtedly correct that the provisional government and itself confronted by a very formidable and active opposition, among the members of which are numbered many officers. A good contingent from the navy, backed up by several officers from both branches of the service, while numerous citizens also joined in the revolt in favor of the monarchy. These banded together and paraded the principal streets and military quarters resulted. The revolt was not suppressed until the morning of the 20th instant, when regular organized troops overcame and dispersed the monarchists. The provisional authorities arrested quite a number of the leading participants in the revolt.

CHRISTMAS BLAZES.

Vicksburg Loses Heavily by a Conflagration Yesterday.

NEW ORLEANS, December 25.—The Times-Democrat's Vicksburg, Miss., special says: The fire last night was the most disastrous that has occurred in Vicksburg in years. The total loss will exceed $100,000, distributed as follows: Switzer, Newitzer & Co., $120,000; stock and building insured for $60,000; Rieck & Jackson, stock $18,000; insurance $15,000; Lewis Bros., stock $15,000; fully insured. Alexander, Kubne & Tate, loss on the Rieck & Jackson building $15,000, well insured. The fire is attributed to carelessness with fireworks, but its origin is really unknown. It began in the basement of the Switzer, Newitzer establishment, which was full of storable cotton goods.

About 11 o'clock dense clouds of smoke poured from the building, making it almost impossible to enter until the flames burst through the first floor. The firemen were at great disadvantage, being unable to reach the fire. By midnight five fireboats were playing on it, and at 1 o'clock in the morning the flames were apparently checked. At this time the rear of the Switzer, Newitzer & Co.'s building had fallen. The crash weakened the southwestern corner of Rieck & Jackson's building, which fell also at 5 o'clock in the morning. The fire then burst out afresh, and in spite of all exertions, licked up this building and contents in a few minutes. The firemen played on the ruins throughout today, and were flooding the basement tonight.

A MADMAN'S DEED.

He Murders His Wife and Then Cuts His Own Throat.

EAST TEMPLETON, Que., December 25.—A man named W. F. Ford, who has been out of his mind for some months, Tuesday night, about midnight, murdered his wife. The noise of the struggle awakened his sister-in-law, Miss Busby, and her appearing Ford attacked Miss Busby with a razor, but after a desperate struggle she escaped a mile distant. Clad only in their night clothes, they were covered with blood, but they presented a startling spectacle. As they left the house they saw Ford cut his own throat with the razor. The jump having been upset in the struggle, it freed the razor, which was buried in the ground. It is supposed Ford's body was burned with it. Ford was a member of the council here.

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., December 25.—Details have been received of the serious ravages of scarlet fever and diphtheria in Campbell county and forty cases are reported, twenty-six of which proved fatal. Mitchell, Huron and Aberdeen also report several deaths from these diseases. Some of the public schools have been closed.

Dr. Held's Father Dying.—A telegram reached Atlanta from Savannah yesterday announcing that the father of Dr. J. W. Held, of Atlanta, was dying at Savannah. Mr. Held, as well as his son, has many friends in Atlanta who will be shocked and grieved to know of his death.

PRESENTED WITH A SWORD.

The Atlanta Rifles Honor Their Captain and Lieutenant.

A pleasant incident on a sad day was the meeting of the Atlanta Rifles at their army in Confederate hall, on South Broad street, yesterday.

There was an abundance of Christmas cheer and the boys were in a happy mood when Captain M. B. Spencer entered the hall.

Private H. L. Myatt, Jr., on behalf of the company, presented their captain with a beautiful sword in the following words:

Gentlemen—You have gathered together here this morning, not as usual to enter upon a victorious field, but to answer the stern command of war, but to show your appreciation of the marked ability of your captain, and present to him on this Christmas morning a little token by which he will ever remember the love you bear him. It becomes my pleasant duty to present that token of love.

Captain Spencer, I know it is customary on occasions like this to recite the many virtues and accomplishments and merits of the recipient. But, on this one I deem it entirely unnecessary. We all know you, and knowing you as we do, are willing to bare your record to the world and invite its inspection.

I have here in my hand a sword which I am instructed, by my comrades, to present to you as a token of their love and esteem, wishing you many, many happy returns of the day.

May it never be drawn in peace but to carve your name high upon the roll of fame; and should it be drawn in war, may it be shattered until it has carried you to victory.

Captain Spencer received the sword gracefully and accepted with words that showed his deep feeling. He pledged himself to do his utmost to bring the company to yet higher excellence and to lead it to still greater victories.

The sword has a blade of Damascus steel and a silver scabbard exquisitely and richly wrought with Russian gold ornaments. On the side is the American eagle, with extended wings, and on the crest of the hilt an eagle in repose—its emblem of victory in war and peace.

Lieutenants F. S. Spencer and Harry Snook were named, and by their words they were provoked to handsome speeches.

Lieutenant Sergeant Bostwick was honored, and the junior was remembered by a handsome sword.

Will ("Windy") Cummings, an outside favorite, was handsomely remembered.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL HAPPENINGS.

The Marriage, in Warrenton, of Colonel E. P. Davis and Miss Mamie Fowler—A Brilliant Event.

WARRENTON, Ga., December 25.—[Special.] The near approach of the holidays has sent the lively notes of the wedding march reverberating through our community, and Cupid's victims are falling right and left. Of the many similar events which have taken place at the old Methodist church in Warrenton, none have excelled in brilliancy the marriage of Colonel E. P. Davis and Miss Mamie Fowler. The church was most tastefully and artistically decorated, the bride and groom appearing in the most beautiful and impressive manner.

When the bridal party arrived at 7:45 p. m., the large church was filled to overflowing and many remained without. As the beautiful notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march under the skillful touch of Mrs. A. L. Cumming filled the church the hush of expectancy fell upon the large audience, and the ushers, Messrs R. V. Wain and L. W. Neeson, entered the church through the right and left aisles, respectively, followed by the flower girls, little Misses sunbeam Biggers and Annie Coleman Pichee. Miss Jessie Jones, of Hepzibah, entered the right aisle at the same time. Mr. J. L. Palmour of Gainesville, entered the left aisle and marching slowly down the center aisle, crossed over in front of the chancel and took positions opposite in the front of the aisle. They were followed by Mr. E. T. Williams, of Augusta, and Miss Kate Farmer, of Warrenton, on the left and right aisles respectively. who took similar positions. Then came Mr. J. A. Cranston, of Augusta, and Miss Annie Wicker, of Warrenton, down the right and left aisles respectively, crossing over and taking positions on each side of the aisle, followed by Mr. J. D. Pichee, of Norwood, and Miss Jennie Fowler, of Warrenton, down the right and left aisles, taking similar positions. The grouping of the bridal party was beautiful, with Misses Jones and Farmer in front and Messrs. Williams and Palmour behind them, and the others on the sides. The bridesmaids wore simple white empire dresses and carried bouquets of white flowers.

Miss Fowler, attired in elegant white silk and wearing a bouquet of white hollyhocks, entered the right aisle on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Nellie Martin, of Cuthbert, at the same time Colonel Davis entered the left aisle on the arm of his brother, Mr. W. J. Davis, of Monticello, meeting in the middle of the chancel, where the bride took the arm of the groom and their respective attendants fell back. Rev. W. L. Kilpatrick arose and performed the marriage ceremony in a few solemn and impressive words, concluding with the benediction.

The large audience remained seated while the bride and groom, preceded by the flower girls, going to the right and left, Mr. Davis and Miss Martin to the left; Mr. Cranston and Miss Wicker on the right and Mr. Pichee and Miss Jones on the left; Mr. Williams and Miss Farmer on the left; Messrs. Nelson and Swain on the right. The arrangement of the bridal party produced much admiring comment, as well as their fine appearance. A most beautiful set of bridesmaids and a handsome party of gentlemen are seldom seen.

The bride and groom took the 12:18 train for Charleston, to be absent for several days on a wedding trip, followed by innumerable good wishes.

Colonel Davis is one of our most promising young men, having in the several years he has spent in our midst firmly established himself with our people, and now commands a lucrative law practice. Miss Mamie Fowler was well known, not only in Georgia, but throughout the state for being one of Georgia's most charming and winning little ladies and receives the congratulations of numbers of friends.

Miss Fannie Cobb, one of the charming and fascinating young ladies of Opelika, Ala., is spending the holidays in this city, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. T. A. Chastain, of No. 11 East Peters street.

The G. R. P. dance, which was to have been given on the 26th inst. at the residence of Captain W. D. Ellis, has been postponed.

Physicians Confess.
All honest, conscientious physicians who give E. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial, frankly admit its superiority over all other blood medicines.

Dr. W. J. Adair, Rockmart, Ga., writes: "I regard E. B. B. as one of the best blood medicines."
Dr. A. H. Roscoe, Nashville, Tenn., writes: "All reports of E. B. B. are favorable, and its speedy action is truly wonderful."

Dr. J. W. Rhodes, Crawfordville, Ga., writes: "I confess E. B. B. is the best and quickest medicine for rheumatism I have ever tried."

Dr. J. F. Farmer, Crawfordville, Ga., writes: "I cheerfully recommend E. B. B. as a fine tonic alternative. Its use cured an excruciating neck after other remedies effected no perceptible good."

Dr. C. H. Montgomery, Jacksonville, Ala., writes: "My mother insisted on my getting E. B. B. for her rheumatism, as she case stubbornly resisted the usual remedies. She experienced immediate relief and her improvement has been truly wonderful."

A prominent physician who wishes his name not given, says: "A patient of mine whose case of tertiary syphilis was surely killing him, and which no treatment seemed to check, was entirely cured with about twelve bottles of E. B. B. He was fairly made up of skin and bones and terrible ulcers." 1w

Two Fire Alarms.
There was an alarm of fire at noon yesterday, but it proved to be but a small blaze on the roof of Mr. A. M. Wallace's residence, on Courtland street.

Another, at 7:15 last night, proved to be an insignificant blaze on Ivy street.

A DASTARDLY OUTRAGE.

A Thief Attempts to Add Murder to His Larceny.
Yesterday morning about two o'clock, Dr. and Mrs. Parks, who live at No. 300 Capitol avenue, were awakened by a noise in the house.

Dr. Parks jumped out of bed and found that there was a man in the room. He ran through the parlor and out of the front door closely pursued by the owner of the house, who immediately lit the gas in the different rooms, and proceeded to investigate to find if the thief had stolen anything.

While he and his wife were going through the rooms the thief threw a rock through a front window, smashing the glass and indenting the plaster on the other side.

A second window and third stone were hurled through the window, the last one striking Mrs. Parks on the side of the head, inflicting a serious wound.

The man then ran off, leaving no clue as to his identity.

CAPTAIN COUCH HONORED.

An Elegant Silver Watch From His Old Comrades.

Captain E. L. Couch was the recipient of a handsome testimonial of the affectionate regard of his old comrades at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At that time he was invited to go to the station house, and just as the evening watch went on Sergeant Curtright handed him a fine silver watch and said:

"It is said, and perhaps truthfully, that all things come to him who patiently waits. You, sir, have heretofore been accustomed to stand where you stand and promote orders to this force. By patient watching, it has now become our turn and you are to receive your orders from us and we say to you first to 'wait.' Not with a view, however, of sending you out in the street and by ways to look after the disorderly as you were accustomed to send us, but to send you from among us to battle with life in another field, where we can only hope you will be as successful as you were in this department."

Occasionally in the course of human life pleasure and duty are so closely blended as that the performance of the one brings down in sorrow-carrying with it a sense of keen delight. Such, sir, is the case with me on this occasion. I have been honored by my comrades of the evening watch of the police force of the city of Atlanta to act as their sincere representative and, first to express to you their sincere respect and, second, to present to you a silver watch as a testimonial of their appreciation of your many acts of kindness and courtesy extended to them while you were their commanding officer. It is needless, sir, for me to say to you that you carry with you to your new field of labor the warm wishes of every member of the watch for your future prosperity and happiness.

To you, sir, as much as to any other one man, is due the respect and esteem of the police force of this city. We have served under you, continuously, since April last, and at no time have we even called upon you for service or counsel but it was given in a manly and officer-like manner, and we have ever felt, that in the performance of duty, we ran no risk, as you were always ready to give us that protection your position entitled you to give. The men have combined together and purchased for your acceptance, as a memento of past associations, this watch, which is guaranteed to mark well the light of time. And in the time to come, when you shall reach the olden days of the hands of this watch, please to remember that for its every tick there is a responsive heart in some police box now before you, and every such beat is for your future prosperity in worldly things, and afterwards to a gathering with the saints.

In reply to this neat address Captain Couch said: "Gentlemen of the police department and friends: In receiving this token of respect from those who gave it I was to say that it is one of the happiest moments of my life it would simply be a true sentiment of my heart. Gentlemen, I assure you that I appreciate the gift."

I feel, gentlemen, that to be timed by the police of this city is a great honor. The department being the pride of the city, an honor to the state, and second to no department in the United States. Gentlemen, in severing my connection with the police it did not sever my love and respect for you, for leaving you was like leaving the home of a father.

My long associations and arduous duty taught me to love and respect you all. Now may this memento of my connection with the police and mark the time when the good people of our city may learn to love and respect the trust, bravest and best guards on our great earth—the police department of Atlanta.

TO HIS CUSTOMERS.

I have just opened one of the largest and most select lines of groceries ever exhibited in Atlanta. Christmas comes but a few times in a lifetime, and it is fitting that one should enjoy it the most he can. The world—the people—are struggling for something good, the ultimate in everything. I have it in the way of groceries and fine Christmas selections. Raisins, currents, cranberries, apples, nuts of all kinds. My prunes, almonds, citron, pure spices, dates, figs, pickles, preserves, grapes, oranges, lemons are the finest to be found in this country. In fact I have everything that is necessary to set a dinner for the most critical connoisseurs. It is useless for you to search round to find something to please you. You can find all right in my store and at the lowest possible prices. My goods are strictly and absolutely pure.

TURKEYS.
I have just closed a contract for 8,000 turkeys for Xmas trade. It is a fact that my customers last Xmas had the finest, freshest and fastest turkeys in Atlanta. My turkeys this year will be hand fed, killed and prepared in the best possible manner. This may be our last Xmas together and I want all my customers to have the choicest turkeys on the market.

Now, remember, I have absolutely everything necessary for the best Christmas dinner. Come on now and get low-priced goods. Yours with choice groceries, J. J. DUFFY, 75 Peachtree St.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

A MATCH FACTORY TO SUPPLY THE SOUTH.

A Company Formed and Work Began Which Will Employ Many Hands and Monopolize the Match Industry for Atlanta.

The last brick in the future home of a new enterprise was laid Tuesday.

With the New Year, Atlanta will commence manufacturing matches on a scale so great that competition will be almost an impossibility. The factory is not a new scheme and is now only changing its location.

Several years ago Mr. C. W. DuPre became convinced that much money could be made by manufacturing the indispensable match. He located a factory at Gainesville and immediately commenced business. Many trials and drawbacks were of necessity met with, but with undaunted energy Mr. DuPre met every obstacle as it arose and overcame it, until finally an unforeseen contingency threatened the little Gainesville factory. The plant was found entirely too small to perform what was required.

It was suggested to Mr. DuPre that it might be well to remove his factory to Atlanta where a stock company could be formed and the business continued on an increased scale.
Seeing that the plan was a good one, a building in which to locate the machinery was at once begun. Two weeks ago all the gentlemen interested met and formed a company with the following officers: C. W. DuPre, president; Z. A. Rice, vice president; George C.
Selman, Jr., secretary and treasurer;
directors, J. H. Porter, B. J. Lowry, A. Mc D.
Wilson, and Saxon Anderson; a paid in capital of $25,000 was subscribed, and it was further agreed that at the end of sixty days a larger sum should be subscribed if it was deemed necessary. The stockholders are all enthusiastic and the money to back the scheme is virtually unlimited. President C. W. DuPre was in the city Tuesday, and he had much to say, all of which went to prove that the success of the new factory is a foregone conclusion. "It is not like an experiment," he said, "for I have been making matches for the past three years, and I know just what can be done. At first,
of course, we were considerably troubled because other matches were being made in the south of such poor quality that we had great difficulty in introducing our brand, and it was true that at first we did not make as good an article as the old factories in the north. After awhile, however, we learned the art, and I am now making a match which is being used all over the south, and the consumers neither know or care where it is made. They find it is good and ask no questions."

"How great will be the output of the new factory?"

"With the machinery which is now in use at Gainesville and the new machinery which has been purchased and which is on the way from the north, we will produce 600 gross per day.
Besides this our character allows us to manufacture woodenware and other light articles, and inside of six months we will be making all these goods."

"Will you be able to find a market for all you manufacture?"

"Undoubtedly we will. It may be that the immediate territory which we would legitimately expect to supply may not consume all we make, but when we find ourselves overstocked we will find a market in New Orleans, Richmond and Baltimore or Memphis. The demand for a good article is too great to bear any difficulty in disposing of our goods, and we intend to manufacture only a first-class match."

"Will you have any difficulty with the old match factories?"

"That is the reason I wished to move to Atlanta and increase the size of the factory. The manufacture of matches in a small way is difficult because of competition. When the thing is done on a large scale I have no fear whatever of the result."

"How soon will you commence work?"

"I will close in Gainesville some time in the first week of January. It will take probably two or three weeks to move the machinery and get it into place, so I suppose that it will not be until the first of February when we begin work in Atlanta."

"How many hands will you employ?"

"We will have one hundred and twenty five hands, but this number would be unnecessary were it not that our markets in the other cities I have mentioned, will be very great, and will test the capacity of all fair machinery."

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has helped me more for catarrh and impure blood than anything else I ever used," writes Mr. Ball, Syracuse, N. Y.
Hundreds of others give similar testimony.

Sunday School Entertainment.

No pleasanter entertainment has been had, or will be had, than that one planned by Professor Landrum, superintendent of Central Baptist Sunday school, and carried out by himself and his able lady and gentlemen assistants, given to the school last night. At 7 p. m. the school met, and was admitted on tickets; then followed bright, cheerful singing, prayer by the pastor, a recitation by Miss Lily Dwyer of Miss Annetta Key Bell's new poem,
"Christmas Time Times," just out in December Century.

The organist, Miss Hattie Stickland, who was too sick to be present, was presented through her father with a purse well filled for her faithful services for school and church during the year just closed.

Now good cheer was announced in the infant room, and the classes, beginning with the youngest, were regaled with candy, nuts, fruits, etc., till all were satisfied. At an early hour the people dispersed, all uniting in expressing themselves as having had a most delightful evening. The Central folks feel that they have a man of affairs in their superintendent.

Cantata at the Church of the Redeemer.

The Cantata which was postponed till Friday night at the Church of the Redeemer calls for a

All of the children engaging in the second part are requested to meet at the church at 2 o'clock.

They make one feel as though life was worth

Do Not Experiment

With your stomach. Take that only which has been proven to be pure and best. The genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt is admitted by the best physicians in the world to be the grandest remedy for stomach disorders. Be sure and secure the genuine.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have at once a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when constive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.
